ORDER:-

In the reference 3rd read above, the Director of Public Health & Family Welfare has informed that the Deputy Registrar General, New Delhi has stated that, Civil Registration System Software has been developed by the Registrar General of India to link the Civil Registration System (CRS) with National Population Register (NPR), to achieve linkage between the two, Unique identification number (UID) being the person's authentication information need to be collected in birth and death reporting forms. The Unique Identification number of the parents in case of birth and still birth, Unique Identification number of deceased, parents of the deceased and spouse (if deceased is married) need to be filled in birth and death reporting form. Unique Identification (UID) number so collected would be used for linking birth and death events occurring in a family to NPR database through the Civil Registration System Software and provision for recording Unique Identification number (UID) has been made in the Civil Registration System software.

2. The Deputy Registrar General, New Delhi has requested to revise the birth, death and still birth reporting forms and include a column of Unique Identification (UID) number of father and mother (parents) in these forms. In addition to that Unique Identification (UID) number of the deceased and spouse (if deceased is married) should also be collected on death reporting form. He has further requested to initiate the action to amend the relevant Rule and ensure the inclusion of aforesaid column in form number 1, 2 and 3 and necessary permission as required under section 30(1) of the Registration of Birth and Death Act, 1969 is granted to amend the respective forms.

3. The Deputy Registrar General, New Delhi has further clarified that, in order to implement the Civil Registration System software effectively in the State / UT, it is advisable to collect the Unique Identification number (UID) of the parents and others in the existing reporting form itself till the forms are revised and their office may be apprised about the action taken in the matter. He has therefore, requested the Government to issue necessary orders in this regard for inclusion of the column of Unique Identification number (UID) in Birth / Death and still Birth reporting forms.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby permitted to revise Form Nos. 1, 2 & 3 for the registration of Birth, Death and Still birth respectively, i.e. Reporting forms to include a column of Unique Identification number (UID) of father and mother (parents).
